THE WEEKLY GAZETTE is now the largest paper printed in the State, and having the matter published in the DAILY to select from, we challenge comparison with any newspaper in Wisconsin. In correct political doctrine, in reliable market reports, in giving the latest news from all quarters, in literary merit and in local information relating to this city and county, we shall spare no pains to make the WEEKLY GAZETTE worthy of public patronage and support.

THE NEWS.

The news from Gen. Hunter is better than at first reported. He not only killed the rebel general Jones, which is a good thing to do for any rebel, but he captured 1500 prisoners, 60 of whom are officers, 3,000 stand of arms, 3 pieces of artillery and a vast quantity of stores. Our forces are on the way to a more important point which probably means Lynchburg. Hunter has effected a juncture with Crook and Averill.

The manner in which John Morgan is stirring up the Kentuckians, is detailed in another column. He has about 3000 men and has cleaned out some 1500 of the 100 day Ohio boys under Hobson. He has been "handsomely" whipped since by General Burbridge. Frankfort is in a flutter and the state archives have been removed to the fort. Gov. Bramlette thinks he can hold out until reinforcements arrive. Wonder what he now thinks about enlisting able-bodied Americans of African descent. John Morgan in large doses every three months, is the only medicine that will cure Kentucky of her heresies.

Marmaduke's blockade of the Mississippi was suddenly raised by Gen. Smith on the 7th inst., after a brisk fight. Our loss was 20 killed and 70 wounded.

By our afternoon report it will be seen that Gen. Gilmore has been guilty of what looks very much like a blunder, if not a little cowadice. If Butler could be put to pleading law, and a Soldier be placed in his stead, it would be a good thing for the army. We have some interesting news from Sherman, who is making steady and substantial progress.

There is nothing especially new from Grant, unless we can believe the news of the capture of Fort Darling which comes under that class of news that is too good to be true.

The Weather and the Crops.

As we have been favored with only one little shower in five weeks, and have had added to the calamity of an incipient drouth one or two slight frosts, certain people of not over sanguine temperment begin to predict a famine. We know that it is very dry, that it has been quite cold for the time of year, that the locusts have made their appearance in some places and that the chintz bug has already begun its work; but notwithstanding all these ill-omens we shall not adopt the famine theory just yet. No doubt grass is too far gone to be made a good crop of now, even with the most abundant rains and the most favorable weather, but it is not too late for other good crops under favorable circumstances. Wheat may yet be a middling crop and we are told that in some sections of this county and in the adjoining ones of Green, Dane and Walworth it is still looking tolerably well despite the cold dry weather. There is plenty of time yet for excellent crops of potatoes, beans, buckwheat and sorghum. The deficiency in the grass crop can be well supplied by a liberal sowing of corn in drills which, every farmer knows, makes a rich and nutritious feed for all kinds of stock and yields a tremendous amount of fodder per acre. On the whole we see no sufficient reason for becoming despondent over our present agricultural prospects.

THE BLAIR family is in a bad way. Its representatives were excluded from the Baltimore Convention; ditto from the Maryland Constitutional Convention; Friday, Frank Blair, by an overwhelming majority, was turned out of the seat he has fraudulently held in the House, and the Military Committee of the Senate is about to report a resolution that the commission he holds as Major-General is illegal and void. Montgomery Blair, if he had any self-respect, would resign his seat in the Cabinet; but we don't expect to hear of his resignation.

MEDICAL Inspector Hamlin says that the statistics of the hospitals of the Washington Department for the last year shows remarkable results. The rate of mortality is less than four per cent., while the splendid hospitals of London exhibit a mortality of more than nine per cent., and those of Paris more than ten per cent. In the hospitals of the Bosphorus during the Crimean war, the death rate was twenty per cent., and in those in the Crimea the rate was over fourteen per cent.

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.—A Tribune correspondent says of the army of the Potomac: "Actual marching has worn out 50,000 pairs of shoes. Two-thirds of the men—more than 100,000—have not changed a garment since they started, have marched and fought, and slept thirty days and thirty nights in heat and dust and rain, and have not changed a garment. They are fighting it out on this line."

EX-CONGRESSMAN KEITT, of South Carolina, one of the most insolent of the fire-eaters, and lately a General in the Rebel Army, was killed in the battle of Wednesday last. Gen. Dales, of the Rebel Army, was also killed on Thursday. So the Richmond Examiner informs us.

NEW REBEL CAVALRY LEADER.—The Richmond Enquirer says: "Since he death of the gallant cavalier, Gen. J. E. Stuart, the cavalry in the Army of Northern Virginia has been apparently without a leader. We are gratified to learn that a dashing officer has been temporarily assigned to the command of these troops, who will doubtless lead them on to fresh deeds of glory."

STATE NEWS.

From the Berlin Spectator we learn that those most dreaded vandals, that periodically come out of the ground, and wage a war of extermination on trees, commonly known by the name of locusts, are appearing by the million in this vicinity. In places the fences are covered with their shells, and the trees with the animals themselves. The same paper says the celebrated Merino Buck Ajax, owned by H J. Livermore of Darkford, was robbed of his fourth fleece on the 28th ult., a fleece so heavy that any sensible sheep in this hot weather, would not object to having it taken from him. It weighed 25 lbs. The four fleeces weighed as follows: 1861, 14 lbs 12 oz; 1862, 19 lbs 13 oz; 1863, 23 lbs.; 1864, 25 lbs. Total of the four years, 82 lbs 9 oz. The Spectator is also responsible for the following: We learn that a clergyman residing about twenty miles west of here, feeling that the members of his flock cared but little whether the stomach of their shepherd contained a vacuum or a dinner, got up a little surprise party the other day, went to a corn crib belonging to a brother minister, and helped himself to about 60 bushels of embryo johnnycake.——The Wisconsin says: We regret to chronicle another accident on the Milwaukee & Chicago Railway. Last night a down freight train ran into another freight train standing at Waukegan, by which the engineer, Joseph Pratt of Chicago, was killed. The damage to the engines or trains was not material.——The Milwaukee Sentinel says: We came yesterday into possession of one of the new two cent pieces of Government coinage. It is less in size than the old copper cent, but larger than the modern nickle, and in color not unlike a half eagle. It is by all odds the neatest coin below the silver issue, that has yet been turned from the Government mint.——The Watertown Democrat says there is no doubt of the existence of a band of horse thieves in that vicinity, and cautions people against them. It also records the capture of three thieves prowling about the city and stealing miscellaneously.——Under the new management work on the Beloit and Madison Railroad is being vigorously pressed. The track is laid two miles north of Oregon, and by the 1st of July it is expected that the cars will be running to the next station at Nye's, six miles from Madison——The Portage City Register says a young lad named THOMAS POAT, aged about 12 years, was drowned in Wisconsin river on Thursday evening, while bathing. At the time of going to press his body had not been recovered. The same paper says quite a frost occurred in some parts of this county on Thursday evening, but not severe enough to do a great deal of damage, we judge.——Appleton has voted $25,000 to construct a side track from the Railway to the water power, by a majority of 97. An improvement that city has long needed.

There are 3,100 refugees from various parts of Missouri and Arkansas, at Rolla, Mo. They are supported in part at the expense of the general Government. They are in the most destitute circumstances, having been robbed by the rebels, and a strong apeal is made in their behalf to the Refugee Commissions.

THE BOSTON Advertiser makes a capital suggestion, viz: That the Loyal States be districted and called upon for a specified number of recruits monthly. This demand could be much more easily met than the large calls usually made.

IT IS understood that Gen. Meade will be promoted to Major General in the Regular army, vice Fremont, resigned; and that Gen. W. S. Hancock will be made a Brigadier General in the Regular army, vice Meade, promoted.

THE FESTIVAL.—The arrangements for the Festival on Wednesday evening next, at Hyatt House Hall, are progressing admirably. We think it bids fair to be a marked success.

THERE WAS GREAT REJOICING among the radicals at St. Louis over the admission of the radical delegation at Baltimore. The Fremont Germans were indignant, and denounced the radical delegation for entering the Convention.

S. S. CONVENTION.—The Committee still want room for 100 delegates. Please send in your names and the number you will accommodate, to E. S. Barrows, Chairman of the Reception Committee, by noon to-morrow.

THE RECEPTION COMMITTEE may be found at the Congregational Church, after 2 o'clock, to-morrow, where they will receive delegates and assign them places.

E. S. BARROWS, Chairman.

THE BILL to aid in the construction of a ship canal to connect the waters of Lake Michigan and Green Bay at Sturgeon Bay, in Door county, donates 160,000 acres of lands for the purpose. The bill has passed the Senate.

THE NEW YORK World says that many families have given up the use of meat entirely for breakfast, and are taking to fish and vegetables instead. A wise and healthy change.

THE KENTUCKY delegation in the National Union Convention represent by actual count, nine hundred slaves. Yet, to a man, the delegates were in favor either of immediate or gradual emancipation.

DISGRACEFUL.—The number of drunken men lying around the streets of our city on Sunday and Sunday evening, is enough to disgrace a town of much larger size than this. There should be some remedy for this crying evil.

CLOSING OF CITY SCHOOLS.—The City Schools will be closed Thursday afternoon of this week, to give the children an opportunity to attend the Sabbath School meeting.

O. J. DEARBORN,
Prest. Bd. of Ed.

THE FOURTH OF JULY—SHALL WE CELEBRATE?—There are many inquiries as to whether we are to have a celebration on the Fourth of July. We learn that there is to be a meeting of the business men, at the Common Council Rooms to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock, to take the matter into consideration.

DEPARTURE OF THE HUNDRED DAY TROOPS.—We learn that the regiment of hundred day men, rendezvoused at Madison, will take their departure to-morrow for Memphis, whither they have been ordered. It is not likely they will reach this place till noon or after. Several of the members of the company from this city were here on a visit yesterday.

MR. S. DENTON of Co. F, 13th regiment, will leave town for the south in a few days, and would notify those wishing to send packages to their friends, that a box will be packed at Eldred's grocery store on the 20th, inst. All articles intended for the box must be carefully labeled and delivered at the store on Saturday of this week, or early on Monday morning. No butter will be taken unless cans are sodered air tight.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE MILTON ACADEMY.—By a card in another column, it will be seen that the tenth anniversary exercises of the Milton Academy will be held in Anniversary Grove on the 5th of July. This institution has ever been conducted with ability and marked success, and these occasions have always been looked forward to with a great deal of interest. Notwithstanding the very active and efficient part taken by the members of it in raising a company of hundred day men, we have no doubt the exercises, under the able management of W. C. Whitford, the Principal of the institution, will fully equal in interest, the coming anniversary, those of any preceding years.

A NEW CHURCH—We are informed that the Unitarians and others of similar religious sympathies, are taking measures to erect a house of worship the present season. They have already a sufficient sum pledged to warrant them in letting the contract, which, we understand they propose to do at once. The plans now in contemplation if carried out by the projectors, will embrace a large and commodious church that will be an ornament to the city, and costing eight or ten thousand dollars. The location at present talked of, is on the North side of Milwaukee street just west of the new Hope Chapel. It is intimated that the Unitarian Association of Boston is to lend a helping hand to the tune of twenty-five hundred or three thousand dollars.

A MUCH NEEDED INSTITUTION.—The absence of a clock or bell to strike the hours of the day, is a want sadly felt by our community. Frequently where a town has no town clock, some one is employed to ring a church bell at 7 o'clock in the morning, at 12 m. and at 6 p. m. This gives the citizens a data from which to start, and keeps the machinery of domestic economy in tolerable good running order. Now, the only public indication of time in the city is the steam whistle of the Rock River Iron Works, which is first rate in its way, but gets so much mixed up with the almost constant whistling of Railroad locomotives as to be nearly indistinguishable. Perhaps the gentlemen of the above named foundry can so alter the sound of their whistle as to make it entirely distinct from whistles generally, and thus serve an admirable purpose for a time indicator. It certainly would be a great public convenience to have some general standard of time. Will somebody move a hand in the matter?

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—By an arrival here to-day from the White House it is ascertained that nothing is now being landed at that place excepting reinforcements and forage for the immediate use of the army.

The Railroad track which had been completed to within a mile or two of the army, has been torn up again and the rails and ties brought back to the White House where they are being placed on barges.

FT. MONROE, June 11.—A late Richmond paper says that several steamers have arrived at Charleston, S. C., within a few days, among them a fine steamship belonging to the Chicopa company.

NEW YORK, June 12.—The Herald's Staunton correspondent states that up to the seventh, we had lost 250 killed and wounded, and had taken 400 prisoners.

A reconnoisance on the 8th, from the 9th corps found the rebel works and a fort abandoned, and our lines were advanced.

Correspondence to the Herald from Butler's Department, gives a detail of the re cent attack on Petersburg, showing that Gilmore advanced to within a short distance, but being informed by a woman that the rebels were prepared to receive him, and having obtained information of the movement the day previous, he decided to return, which he did safely, with only 25 wounded.

Gen. Kantz, by another road, surprised and entered the rebel works by a brave dash, capturing several pieces of artillery and a number of prisoners, but not being co-operated with by Gilmore, was obliged to fall back to prevent being surrounded, bringing his prisoners and captured guns with him.

The gunboats in the Appotomax, threw many shells into Petersburg during the movement.

FROM KENTUCKY.

CINCINNATI, June 12—Morgan with about 3000 men attacked the 168th and 171st Ohio, under Gen. Hobson, at Cynthiana yesterday, and after a pretty severe fight, compelled Hobson to surrender on condition that his men should be immediately exchanged.

The fighting took place principally in the streets of Cynthiana, and some of our troops took refuge in the Court House, and in order to dislodge them, a stable near the hotel was set on fire. About 20 buildings were consumed before the fire could be extinguished.

Our loss was fifteen killed and 50 wounded.

Col. Berry, Provost Marshal of Covington, was mortally wounded. Col. Garris, 168th O., severely wounded. Also, it is reported that Hobson is wounded.

Our loss in prisoners is from 1200 to 1500 men.

This morning, Gen. Burbridge, who left Paris last night, fell upon Morgan while his men were at breakfast, and after a very severe fight completely defeated him, scattering his forces in all directions. About 150 prisoners were taken, including 20 officers. Burbridge at last advices, was closely following the fleeing rebels.

LOUISVILLE, June 11.—Gen. Carrington just received the following telegram from Gen. Burbridge's A. A. G.

LEXINGTON, 1 P. M.—I have heard nothing from Gov. Bramlette. The rebels left here yesterday for Georgetown, supposed to have gone east from there. Burbridge started in pursuit with fresh horses last night and will press them up, and fight them steadily. A messenger who left the capitol at 4 A. M., reports that Frankfort is under martial law, and all men capable of bearing arms have been armed to defend the city. The State Archieves have been removed to the fort and the Governor feels confident of holding it until reinforcements shall arrive.

A force of 300 rebels occupy the Stockades, three miles this side of Frankfort to prevent reinforcements reaching Louisville. The Union troops made an attack on the Stockades last night but were repulsed.

FROM CAIRO AND BELOW.

CAIRO, June 11.—By the arrival of the Liberty No. 2, we have some further accounts of the battle near Columbia, Ark. The rebel force engaged is estimated at 3000, with artillery. Gen. Smith landed at Sunny Side on the 5th., and took up his line of march early in the morning, under a heavy rain, in the direction of Lake Chereot. About 10 o'clock the advance met two regiments of the enemy, strongly posted upon the bank of a Bayou emptying into the lake, and opened fire on them from two guns, when they fell back to a second position on the Bayou, leaving an open field between the two lines. Our fire was responded to by the enemy with a battery of six guns. An artillery duel of some minutes ensued, our forces soon discontinued the use of their guns, and advanced under a heavy fire, upon the enemies line, driving them from their fortifications. The enemy retreated in a westerly direction, leaving the lake in their rear, rendering it impracticable to pursue, and our forces were withdrawn. The engagement lasted an hour; our loss is about 20 killed and 70 wounded; enemy's loss about the same. Our forces suffered most in crossing an open field, being under heavy fire of artillery and small arms. Marmaduke is reported to be in comman of the rebels. Gen. Mower had his horse shot twice while leading his men upon the enemies line.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, June 11th, 10 P. M.—Maj. Gen. Dix: A dispatch from Gen. Hunter, dated 6 o'clock A. M., the morning of the 8th inst. at Staunton, reports that we met the enemy at Piedmont last Sunday, killing Gen. Jones, their commanding General, and totally routing them after a battle of 10 hours duration.

We have captured 1500 prisoners altogether, 1000 men and over 60 officers on the field of battle; also 3000 stand of arms 3 pieces of artillery and a vast quantity of stores.

We have to-day, effected a junction with Gens. Crook and Averill.

It is stated in another dispatch, unofficial, dated at Staunton, 9th, that our infantry is now engaged in burning ties, and bending rails, east and west. All Government and Railroad buildings have been burned at Staunton. We leave to-morrow.

R. R. MCLAIN, Operator.

A dispatch from Grant's head-quarters, dated yesterday at 4 o'clock P. M., reports that the rebel cavalry yesterday made a dash into Wilson's rear near the Lenny House. Wilson this morning sent out a part of McIntosh's brigade to see where the enemy was. Their pickets were driven back and their outer lines forced by the the cavalry passing over the entrenchments about a mile west of Bethesda Church. McIntosh came upon Field's division of infantry, and having accomplished the purpose of his reconnoisance retreated. He killed and wounded a number of rebels and brought away 4 or 5 prisoners. He had 16 men killed and wounded.

Dispatches from Gen. Sherman dated at his head-quarters, Big Shanty, Georgia, this morning have been received. They state that our lines are within four or five hundred yards of the enemy but no fighting yet.

E. M. STANTON.

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, June 8.—Our left wing now extends across the railroad line on the eastern bank of the Chickahominy. An advance in that direction was made yesterday morning by Griffin and Cutler's divisions of the 8th corps, and Sumner's bridge was taken after a short encounter. The 18th Massachusetts advanced to the river, driving the enemy's pickets and reoccupying the bridge. Two North Carolina regiments were on the opposite side of the river, and a rebel brigade at Meadow station.

HEAD QUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, June 9, 1864.—There is nothing particularly interesting to report. On a part of the line picket firing has been kept up all day, while at other points it would seem as if by mutual agreement that this practice had ceased.

Last evening a battery in General Birney's direction, fired on a house on our left which, according to a deserter which came in the morning, was occupied by General Cox. Three shells went through it causing the occupants to leave it rather hastily. The fire was returned with very good aim, but without loss to us. The deserter says that Beauregard's troops are posted from Bottom's Bridge all the way to the James river, watching for the appearance of our army in that direction.

HEADQUARTERS, June 10.—The enemy are busy throwing up fortifications in the vicinity of Summer and Bottom's bridges. The spires of Richmond are visible at this point, and wagon teams can be seen moving within three or four miles of the city, where the road for a short distance is visible. Very little firing has taken place to-day. No change in our position has been made within the last two days.

Last evening as Col. McAllister, of the 11th New Jersey, was riding along the line, he was fired upon by a rebel sharpshooter, notwithstanding there had been a tacit agreement that no picket firing should take place. The bullet passed across the Colonel's breast, and entered the heart of the Colonel's orderly, who was riding with him. The entire command was at once put under arms, expecting an attack, but nothing further transpired.

TO MERCHANTS, MILLERS AND OTHER SHIPPERS.—I am now prepared to make season contracts for Lake Insurance in the old companies at best rates.

E. L. DYNOCK, Agent.

FURTHER FROM GEN. SHERMAN!

FROM EUROPE.

CAPE RACE, June 13.—Steamship Belgian from Liverpool on the 2d and Londonderry 3d passed here yesterday. News unimportant. On the 1st inst. the House of Commons government was defeated by 10 majority.

FROM KENTUCKY.

CINCINNATI, June 13.—Further reports of the fight yesterday represent the rebel loss at 300 killed and wounded and about 700 prisoners. Burbridge is supposed to be pursuing the remnant of Morgan's command.

The loss to the Kentucky Central Railroad is estimated at $200,000. There were five locomotives and seventy-five cars at Lexington, which are reported uninjured.

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The Tribune's Washington correspondence has the following not received from any other source:

WHITE HOUSE, June 11.—News from the front this morning is of a most joyful character. Two officers have just arrived here, and bring the joyful news of the capture of Fort Darling.

An order conveying this intelligence was read to the army last evening, and the cheers of our soldiers could be heard for miles around.

FROM GEN. BUTLER.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The Tribune's correspondent with Butler, says of the expedition against Petersburg:

There were 1,400 picked horsemen under Kautz, and between 3,000 and 4,000 infantry under Gillmore, and all under the command of Gillmore. At noon, when the infantry were within a mile and a half of Petersburg, Gillmore sent a dispatch that he heard Kautz's guns away to his left, but had had no communication with him. Gillmore had instructions to advance on Petersburg and engage the enemy. He returned to-night. It was immaterial whether he succeeded or not, the real object being to divert attention from Kautz, who was to dash into the city from the opposite side, burn Appomatox bridge, destroy stores, supplies, depots, &c., and do all he could to annoy and harrass the enemy. A signal glass showed that Kautz was fulfilling his mission.

The cavalry were seen attacking upon the further side, and driving the enemy before them. This was inside the entrenchments on the outskirts. Availing himself of the second clause of his instructions, viz., to return to-night, he sent backward that he had found the works quite formidable, more so than had been anticipated, and that he and Gen. Kinks did not deem it prudent to attack, and therefore retired half a mile where he formed in line of battle.

Meanwhile Gen. Kautz had forced the line of intrenchments with his cavalry and was fighting in the city expecting the infantry would assist him. The rebels seeing Gilmore's force withdrawing, turned their attention closely on Kautz and capturing a three inch gun. At this the cavalry pounced upon a 12 pounder brass piece which they saved and brought away. Still no sign of diversion in their favor by the infantry. To attempt to accomplish the work assigned him was madness and Gen. Kautz reluctantly withdrew.

FROM GEN. SHERMAN.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The Tribune's correspondent with Sherman writes under date of near Dallas on the 1st, says the enemy in front of the 23d corps, yesterday morning made a dash on our advanced line of works with the intention of occupying the latter position.

They were met by a heavy fire from our men who remained immovable, and although this regiment came up within a few paces, the enemy faltered and fell back in terrible confusion. This repulse of the enemy has been one of the most decided and destructive which has yet suffered. During last night the enemy assaulted Hooker, but were repulsed as usual with loss.

The attack on McPherson referred to in my former correspondence, proved very disastrous to the enemy. The rebels came on in two divisions, with great resolution, but met with a very destructive fire, both from artillery and musketry. The fight continued nearly an hour, when the enemy retired, leaving the field covered with their dead and wounded, numbering nearly 2,500. After five days fighting, principally on his own hook, McPherson has closed upon our right wing, enabling us to make our next important movement.

THREE PRINTERS in the office of the Fond du Lac Press struck the other day, because the proprietor employed a lady compositor. The only effect was to fool themselves out of work. Type-setting can be performed by ladies, and will be despite the churlish opposition of a few of the sterner sex. If the latter wish to follow an occupation where ladies are not allowed, let them enlist.—Berlin Courant.

STRAYED—Two weeks ago a large red Durham COW, seven or eight years old, small, short, broad horns, rather thin in flesh, good size smooth teats, milks very easy. The hair was off from a small part just back of the hip bone; the heels on the hind feet are long, broad and flat, appear to be growing off with plows in them, one of them so much that it bends when she walks. Any one who will return her, or who will give information where she may be found, will be liberally rewarded.

LIST OF LETTERS Remaining unclaimed in the Post Office at Janesville, State of Wisconsin, on the 11th of June, 1864.

To obtain any of these letters, the applicant must call for "advertised letters," give the date of this list, and pay one cent for advertising.

If not called for within one month, they will be sent to the Dead Letter Office.

Free delivery of letters by carriers, at the residences of owners, may be secured by observing the following rules:

1. Direct letters plainly to the street and number, as well as the post office and State.

2. Head letters with the writer's post office and State, street and number, sign them plainly with full name, and request that answers be directed accordingly.

3. Letters to strangers or transient visitors in a town or city, whose special address may be unknown, should be marked in the lower left hand corner with the word "Transient."

4. Place the postage stamp on the upper right-hand corner, and leave space between the stamp and direction for post-marking without interfering with the writing.

N. B.—A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within 30 days or less, written or printed with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left-hand end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with at the usual prepaid rate of postage, payable when the letter is delivered to the writer.—[Sec. 28, Law of 1863.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

THE NEWS.

The news from Gen. Hunter is better than at first reported. He not only killed the rebel general Jones, which is a good thing to do for any rebel, but he captured 1500 prisoners, 60 of whom are officers, 3,000 stand of arms, 3 pieces of artillery and a vast quantity of stores. Our forces are on the way to a more important point which probably means Lynchburg. Hunter has effected a juncture with Crook and Averill.

The manner in which John Morgan is stirring up the Kentuckians, is detailed in another column. He has about 3000 men and has cleaned out some 1500 of the 100 day Ohio boys under Hobson. He has been "handsomely" whipped since by General Burbridge. Frankfort is in a flutter and the state archives have been removed to the fort. Gov. Bramlette thinks he can hold out until reinforcements arrive. Wonder what he now thinks about enlisting able-bodied Americans of African descent. John Morgan in large doses every three months, is the only medicine that will cure Kentucky of her heresies.

Marmaduke's blockade of the Mississippi was suddenly raised by Gen. Smith on the 7th inst., after a brisk fight. Our loss was 20 killed and 70 wounded.

By our afternoon report it will be seen that Gen. Gilmore has been guilty of what looks very much like a blunder, if not a little cowadice. If Butler could be put to pleading law, and a Soldier be placed in his stead, it would be a good thing for the army. We have some interesting news from Sherman, who is making steady and substantial progress.

There is nothing especially new from Grant, unless we can believe the news of the capture of Fort Darling which comes under that class of news that is too good to be true.

The Weather and the Crops.

As we have been favored with only one little shower in five weeks, and have had added to the calamity of an incipient drouth one or two slight frosts, certain people of not over sanguine temperament begin to predict a famine. We know that it is very dry, that it has been quite cold for the time of year, that the locusts have made their appearance in some places and that the chintz bug has already begun its work; but notwithstanding all these ill-omens we shall not adopt the famine theory just yet. No doubt grass is too far gone to be made a good crop of now, even with the most abundant rains and the most favorable weather, but it is not too late for other good crops under favorable circumstances. Wheat may yet be a middling crop and we are told that in some sections of this county and in the adjoining ones of Green, Dane and Walworth it is still looking tolerably well despite the cold dry weather. There is plenty of time yet for excellent crops of potatoes, beans, buckwheat and sorghum. The deficiency in the grass crop can be well supplied by a liberal sowing of corn in drills which, every farmer knows, makes a rich and nutritious feed for all kinds of stock and yields a tremendous amount of fodder per acre. On the whole we see no sufficient reason for becoming despondent over our present agricultural prospects.

THE BLAIR family is in a bad way. Its representatives were excluded from the Baltimore Convention; ditto from the Maryland Constitutional Convention; Friday, Frank Blair, by an overwhelming majority, was turned out of the seat he has fraudulently held in the House, and the Military Committee of the Senate is about to report a resolution that the commission he holds as Major-General is illegal and void. Montgmery Blair, if he had any self-respect, would resign his seat in the Cabinet; but we don't expect to hear of his resignation.

MEDICAL Inspector Hamlin says that the statistics of the hospitals of the Washington Department for the last year shows remarkable results. The rate of mortality is less than four per cent., while the splendid hospitals of London exhibit a mortality of more than nine per cent., and those of Paris more than ten per cent. In the hospitals of the Bosphorus during the Crimean war, the death rate was twenty per cent., and in those in the Crimea the rate was over fourteen per cent.

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.—A Tribune correspondent says of the army of the Potomac: "Actual marching has worn out 50,000 pairs of shoes. Two-thirds of the men—more than 100,000—have not changed a garment since they started, have marched and fought, and slept thirty days and thirty nights in heat and dust and rain, and have not changed a garment. They are fighting it out on this line."

EX-CONGRESSMAN KEITT, of South Carolina, one of the most insolent of the fire-eaters, and lately a General in the Rebel Army, was killed in the battle of Wednesday last. Gen. Dales, of the Rebel Army, was also killed on Thursday. So the Richmond Examiner informs us.

NEW REBEL CAVALRY LEADER.—The Richmond Enquirer says: "Since he death of the gallant cavalier, Gen. J. E. Stuart, the cavalry in the Army of Northern Virginia has been apparently without a leader. We are gratified to learn that a dashing officer has been temporarily assigned to the command of these troops, who will doubtless lead them on to fresh deeds of glory."

STATE NEWS.

From the Berlin Spectator we learn that those most dreaded vandals, that periodically come out of the ground, and wage a war of extermination on trees, commonly known by the name of locusts, are appearing by the million in this vicinity. In places the fences are covered with their shells, and the trees with the animals themselves. The same paper says the celebrated Merino Buck Ajax, owned by H J. Livermore of Darkford, was robbed of his fourth fleece on the 28th ult., a fleece so heavy that any sensible sheep in this hot weather, would not object to having it taken from him. It weighed 25 lbs. The four fleeces weighed as follows: 1861, 14 lbs 12 oz; 1862, 19 lbs 13 oz; 1863, 23 lbs.; 1864, 25 lbs. Total of the four years, 82 lbs 9 oz. The Spectator is also responsible for the following: We learn that a clergyman residing about twenty miles west of here, feeling that the members of his flock cared but little whether the stomach of their shepherd contained a vacuum or a dinner, got up a little surprise party the other day, went to a corn crib belonging to a brother minister, and helped himself to about 60 bushels of embryo johnnycake.——The Wisconsin says: We regret to chronicle another accident on the Milwaukee & Chicago Railway. Last night a down freight train ran into another freight train standing at Waukegan, by which the engineer, Joseph Pratt of Chicago, was killed. The damage to the engines or trains was not material.——The Milwaukee Sentinel says: We came yesterday into possession of one of the new two cent pieces of Government coinage. It is less in size than the old copper cent, but larger than the modern nickle, and in color not unlike a half eagle. It is by all odds the neatest coin below the silver issue, that has yet been turned from the Government mint.—— The Watertown Democrat says there is no doubt of the existence of a band of horse thieves in that vicinity, and cautions people against them. It also records the capture of three thieves prowling about the city and stealing miscellaneously.——Under the new management work on the Beloit and Madison Railroad is being vigorously pressed. The track is laid two miles north of Oregon, and by the 1st of July it is expected that the cars will be running to the next station at Nye's, six miles from Madison——The Portage City Register says a young lad named THOMAS POAT, aged about 12 years, was drowned in Wisconsin river on Thursday evening, while bathing. At the time of going to press his body had not been recovered. The same paper says quite a frost occurred in some parts of this county on Thursday evening, but not severe enough to do a great deal of damage, we judge.——Appleton has voted $25,000 to construct a side track from the Railway to the water power, by a majority of 97. An improvement that city has long needed.

There are 3,100 refuges from various parts of Missouri and Arkansas, at Rolla, Mo. They are supported in part at the expense of the general Government. They are in the most destitute circumstances, having been robbed by the rebels, and a strong apeal is made in their behalf to the Refugee Commissions.

THE BOSTON Advertiser makes a capital suggestion, viz: That the Loyal States be districted and called upon for a specified number of recruits monthly. This demand could be much more easily met than the large calls usually made.

IT IS understood that Gen. Meade will be promoted to Major General in the Regular army, vice Fremont, resigned; and that Gen. W. S. Hancock will be made a Brigadier General in the Regular army, vice Meade, promoted.

THE FESTIVAL.—The arrangements for the Festival on Wednesday evening next, at Hyatt House Hall, are progressing admirably. We think it bids fair to be a marked success.

THERE WAS GREAT REJOICING among the radicals at St. Louis over the admission of the radical delegation at Baltimore. The Fremont Germans were indignant, and denounced the radical delegation for entering the Convention.

S. S. CONVENTION.—The Committee still want room for 100 delegates. Please send in your names and the number you will accommodate, to E. S. Barrows, Chairman of the Reception Committee, by noon to-morrow.

THE RECEPTION COMMITTEE may be found at the Congregational Church, after 2 o'clock, to-morrow, where they will receive delegates and assign them places.

E. S. BARROWS, Chairman.

THE BILL to aid in the construction of a ship canal to connect the waters of Lake Michigan and Green Bay at Sturgeon Bay, in Door county, donates 160,000 acres of lands for the purpose. The bill has passed the Senate.

THE NEW YORK World says that many families have given up the use of meat entirely for breakfast, and are taking to fish and vegetables instead. A wise and healthy change.

THE KENTUCKY delegation in the National Union Convention represent by actual count, nine hundred slaves. Yet, to a man, the delegates were in favor either of immediate or gradual emancipation.

DISGRACEFUL.—The number of drunken men lying around the streets of our city on Sunday and Sunday evening, is enough to disgrace a town of much larger size than this. There should be some remedy for this crying evil.

CLOSING OF CITY SCHOOLS.—The City Schools will be closed Thursday afternoon of this week, to give the children an opportunity to attend the Sabbath School meeting.

O. J. DEARBORN,
Prest. Bd. of Ed.

THE FOURTH OF JULY—SHALL WE CELEBRATE?—There are many inquiries as to whether we are to have a celebration on the Fourth of July. We learn that there is to be a meeting of the business men, at the Common Council Rooms to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock, to take the matter into consideration.

DEPARTURE OF THE HUNDRED DAY TROOPS.—We learn that the regiment of hundred day men, rendezvoused at Madison, will take their departure to-morrow for Memphis, whither they have been ordered. It is not likely they will reach this place till noon or after. Several of the members of the company from this city were here on a visit yesterday.

MR. S. DENTON of Co. F. 13th regiment, will leave town for the south in a few days, and would notify those wishing to send packages to their friends, that a box will be packed at Eldred's grocery store on the 20th, inst. All articles intended for the box must be carefully labeled and delivered at the store on Saturday of this week, or early on Monday morning. No butter will be taken unless cans are sodered air tight.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE MILTON ACADEMY.—By a card in another column, it will be seen that the tenth anniversary exercises of the Milton Academy will be held in Anniversary Grove on the 5th of July. This institution has ever been conducted with ability and marked success, and these occasions have always been looked forward to with a great deal of interest. Notwithstanding the very active and efficient part taken by the members of it in raising a company of hundred day men, we have no doubt the exercises, under the able management of W. C. Whitford, the Principal of the institution, will fully equal in interest, the coming anniversary, those of any preceding years.

A NEW CHURCH.—We are informed that the Unitarians and others of similar religious sympathies, are taking measures to erect a house of worship the present season. They have already a sufficient sum pledged to warrant them in letting the contract, which, we understand they propose to do at once. The plans now in contemplation if carried out by the projectors, will embrace a large and commodious church that will be an ornament to the city, and costing eight or ten thousand dollars. The location at present talked of, is on the North side of Milwaukee street just west of the new Hope Chapel. It is intimated that the Unitarian Association of Boston is to lend a helping hand to the tune of twenty-five hundred or three thousand dollars.

A MUCH NEEDED INSTITUTION.—The absence of a clock or bell to strike the hours of the day, is a want sadly felt by our community. Frequently where a town has no town clock, some one is employed to ring a church bell at 7 o'clock in the morning, at 12 m. and at 6 p. m. This gives the citizens a data from which to start, and keeps the machinery of domestic economy in tolerable good running order. Now, the only public indication of time in the city is the steam whistle of the Rock River Iron Works, which is first rate in its way, but gets so much mixed up with the almost constant whistling of Railroad locomotives as to be nearly indistinguishable. Perhaps the gentlemen of the above named foundry can so alter the sound of their whistle as to make it entirely distinct from whistles generally, and thus serve an admirable purpose for a time indicator. It certainly would be a great public convenience to have some general standard of time. Will somebody move a hand in the matter?

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—By an arrival here to-day from the White House it is ascertained that nothing is now being landed at that place excepting reinforcements and forage for the immediate use of the army.

The Railroad track which had been completed to within a mile or two of the army, has been torn up again and the rails and ties brought back to the White House where they are being placed on barges.

FT. MONROE, June 11.—A late Richmond paper says that several steamers have arrived at Charleston, S. C., within a few days, among them a fine steamship belonging to the Chicopa company.

NEW YORK, June 12.—The Herald's Staunton correspondent states that up to the seventh, we had lost 250 killed and wounded, and had taken 400 prisoners.

A reconnoisance on the 8th, from the 9th corps found the rebel works and a fort abandoned, and our lines were advanced.

Correspondence to the Herald from Butler's Department, gives a detail of the recent attack on Petersburg, showing that Gilmore advanced to within a short distance, but being informed by a woman that the rebels were prepared to receive him, and having obtained information of the movement the day previous, he decided to return, which he did safely, with only 25 wounded.

Gen. Kautz, by another road, surprised and entered the rebel works by a brave dash, capturing several pieces of artillery and a number of prisoners, but not being co-operated with by Gilmore, was obliged to fall back to prevent being surrounded, bringing his prisoners and captured guns with him.

The gunboats in the Appotomax, threw many shells into Petersburg during the movement.

FROM KENTUCKY.

CINCINNATI, June 12.—Morgan with about 3000 men attacked the 168th and 171st Ohio, under Gen. Hobson, at Cynthiana yesterday, and after a pretty severe fight, compelled Hobson to surrender on condition that his men should be immediately exchanged.

The fighting took place principally in the streets of Cynthiana, and some of our troops took refuge in the Court House, and in order to dislodge them, a stable near the hotel was set on fire. About 20 buildings were consumed before the fire could be extinguished.

Our loss was fifteen killed and 50 wounded.

Col. Berry, Provost Marshal of Covington, was mortally wounded. Col. Garris, 168th O., severely wounded. Also, it is reported that Hobson is wounded.

Our loss in prisoners is from 1200 to 1500 men.

This morning, Gen. Burbridge, who left Paris last night, fell upon Morgan while his men were at breakfast, and after a very severe fight completely defeated him, scattering his forces in all directions. About 150 prisoners were taken, including 20 officers. Burbridge at last advices, was closely following the fleeing rebels.

LOUISVILLE, June 11.—Gen. Carrington just received the following telegram from Gen. Burbridge's A. A. G.

LEXINGTON, 1 P. M.—I have heard nothing from Gov. Bramlette. The rebels left here yesterday for Georgetown, supposed to have gone east from there. Burbridge started in pursuit with fresh horses last night and will press them up, and fight them steadily. A messenger who left the capitol at 4 A. M., reports that Frankfort is under martial law, and all men capable of bearing arms have been armed to defend the city. The State Archieves have been removed to the fort and the Governor feels confident of holding it until reinforcements shall arrive.

A force of 300 rebels occupy the Stockades, three miles this side of Frankfort to prevent reinforcements reaching Louisville. The Union troops made an attack on the Stockades last night but were repulsed.

FROM CAIRO AND BELOW.

CAIRO, June 11.—By the arrival of the Liberty No. 2, we have some further accounts of the battle near Columbia, Ark. The rebel force engaged is estimated at 3000, with artillery. Gen. Smith landed at Sunny Side on the 5th., and took up his line of march early in the morning, under a heavy rain, in the direction of Lake Chereot. About 10 o'clock the advance met two regiments of the enemy, strongly posted upon the bank of a Bayou emptying into the lake, and opened fire on them from two guns, when they fell back to a second position on the Bayou, leaving an open field between the two lines. Our fire was responded to by the enemy with a battery of six guns. An artillery duel of some minutes ensued, our forces soon discontinued the use of their guns, and advanced under a heavy fire, upon the enemies line, driving them from their fortifications. The enemy retreated in a westerly direction, leaving the lake in their rear, rendering it impracticable to pursue, and our forces were withdrawn. The engagement lasted an hour; our loss is about 20 killed and 70 wounded; enemy's loss about the same. Our forces suffered most in crossing an open field, being under heavy fire of artillery and small arms. Marmaduke is reported to be in comman of the rebels. Gen. Mower had his horse shot twice while leading his men upon the enemies line.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, June 11th, 10 P. M.—Maj. Gen. Dix: A dispatch from Gen. Hunter, dated 6 o'clock A. M., the morning of the 8th inst. at Stauton, reports that we met the enemy at Piedmont last Sunday, killing Gen. Jones, their commanding General, and totally routing them after a battle of 10 hours duration.

We have captured 1500 prisoners altogether, 1000 men and over 60 officers on the field of battle; also 3000 stand of arms 3 pieces of artillery and a vast quantity of stores.

We have to-day, effected a junction with Gens. Crook and Averill.

It is stated in another dispatch, unofficial, dated at Staunton, 9th, that our infantry is now engaged in burning ties, and bending rails, east and west. All Government and Railroad buildings have been burned at Staunton. We leave to-morrow.

R. R. MCLAIN, Operator.

A dispatch from Grant's head-quarters, dated yesterday at 4 o'clock P. M., reports that the rebel cavalry yesterday made a dash into Wilson's rear near the Lenny House. Wilson this morning sent out a part of McIntosh's brigade to see where the enemy was. Their pickets were driven back and their outer lines forced by the the cavalry passing over the entrenchments about a mile west of Bethesda Church. McIntosh came upon Field's division of infantry, and having accomplished the purpose of his reconnoisance retreated. He killed and wounded a number of rebels and brought away 4 or 5 prisoners. He had 16 men killed and wounded.

Dispatches from Gen. Sherman dated at his head-quarters, Big Shanty, Georgia, this morning have been received. They state that our lines are within four or five hundred yards of the enemy but no fighting yet.

E. M. STANTON.

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, June 8.—Our left wing now extends across the railroad line on the eastern bank of the Chickahominy. An advance in that direction was made yesterday morning by Griffin and Cutler's divisions of the 8th corps, and Sumner's bridge was taken after a short encounter. The 18th Massachusetts advanced to the river, driving the enemy's pickets and reoccupying the bridge. Two North Carolina regiments were on the opposite side of the river, and a rebel brigade at Meadow station.

HEAD QUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, June 9, 1864.—There is nothing particularly interesting to report. On a part of the line picket firing has been kept up all day, while at other points it would seem as if by mutual agreement that this practice had ceased.

Last evening a battery in General Birney's direction, fired on a house on our left which, according to a deserter which came in the morning, was occupied by General Cox. Three shells went through it causing the occupents to leave it rather hastily. The fire was returned with very good aim, but without loss to us. The deserter says that Beauregard's troops are posted from Bottom's Bridge all the way to the James river, watching for the appearance of our army in that direction.

HEADQUARTERS, June 10.—The enemy are busy throwing up fortifications in the vicinity of Sumner and Bottom's bridges. The spires of Richmond are visible at this point, and wagon teams can be seen moving within three or four miles of the city, where the road for a short distance is visible. Very little firing has taken place today. No change in our position has been made within the last two days.

Last evening as Col. McAllister, of the 11th New Jersey, was riding along the line, he was fired upon by a rebel sharpshooter, notwithstanding there had been a tacit agreement that no picket firing should take place. The bullet passed across the Colonel's breast, and entered the heart of the Colonel's orderly, who was riding with him. The entire command was at once put under arms, expecting an attack, but nothing further transpired.

FURTHER FROM GEN. SHERMAN!

FROM EUROPE.

CAPE RACE, June 13.—Steamship Belgian from Liverpool on the 2d and Londonderry 3d passed here yesterday. News unimportant. On the 1st inst. the House of Commons government was defeated by 10 majority.

FROM KENTUCKY.

CINCINNATI, June 13.—Further reports of the fight yesterday represent the rebel loss at 300 killed and wounded and about 700 prisoners. Burbridge is supposed to be pursuing the remnant of Morgan's command.

The loss to the Kentucky Central Railroad is estimated at $200,000. There were five locomotives and seventy-five cars at Lexington, which are reported uninjured.

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The Tribune's Washington correspondence has the following not received from any other source:

WHITE HOUSE, June 11.—News from the front this morning is of a most joyful character. Two officers have just arrived here, and bring the joyful news of the capture of Fort Darling.

An order conveying this intelligence was read to the army last evening, and the cheers of our soldiers could be heard for miles around.

FROM GEN. BUTLER.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The Tribune's correspondent with Butler, says of the expedition against Petersburg:

There were 1,400 picked horsemen under Kautz, and between 3,000 and 4,000 infantry under Gillmore, and all under the command of Gillmore. At noon, when the infantry were within a mile and a half of Petersburg, Gillmore sent a dispatch that he heard Kautz's guns away to his left, but had had no communication with him. Gillmore had instructions to advance on Petersburg and engage the enemy. He returned to-night. It was immaterial whether he succeeded or not, the real object being to divert attention from Kautz, who was to dash into the city from the opposite side, burn Appomatox bridge, destroy stores, supplies, depots, &c., and do all he could to annoy and harrass the enemy. A signal glass showed that Kautz was fulfilling his mission.

The cavalry were seen attacking upon the further side, and driving the enemy before them. This was inside the entrenchments on the outskirts. Availing himself of the second clause of his instructions, viz., to return to-night, he sent back ward that he had found the works quite formidable, more so than had been anticipated, and that he and Gen. Kinks did not deem it prudent to attack, and therefore retired half a mile where he formed in line of battle.

Meanwhile Gen. Kautz had forced the line of intrenchments with his cavalry and was fighting in the city expecting the infantry would assist him. The rebels seeing Gilmore's force withdrawing, turned their attention closely on Kautz and capturing a three inch gun. At this the cavalry pounced upon a 12 pounder brass piece which they saved and brought away. Still no sign of diversion in their favor by the infantry. To attempt to accomplish the work assigned him was madness and Gen. Kautz reluctantly withdrew.

FROM GEN. SHERMAN.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The Tribune's correspondent with Sherman writes under date of near Dallas on the 1st, says the enemy in front of the 23d corps, yesterday morning made a dash on our advanced line of works with the intention of occupying the latter position.

They were met by a heavy fire from our men who remained immovable, and although this regiment came up within a few paces, the enemy faltered and fell back in terrible confusion. This repulse of the enemy has been one of the most decided and destructive which has yet suffered. During last night the enemy assaulted Hooker, but were repulsed as usual with loss.

The attack on McPherson referred to in my former correspondence, proved very disastrous to the enemy. The rebels came on in two divisions, with great resolution, but met with a very destructive fire, both from artillery and musketry. The fight continued nearly an hour, when the enemy retired, leaving the field covered with their dead and wounded, numbering nearly 2,500. After five days fighting, principally on his own hook, McPherson has closed upon our right wing, enabling us to make our next important movement.

For President,

OF ILLINOIS.

For Vice-President,

ANDREW JOHNSON,

OF TENNESSEE.

MISS MAJOR PAULINE CUSHMAN.

Thrilling Adventure of a Lady in the Secret Service.

We have now among us one of those heroic women, whose glorious courage and unflinching personal sacrifice have given a tinge of the olden times romances to the somber annals of our terrible civil war. There arrived yesterday at the Astor House, where she will remain for a few days, Miss Major Pauline Cushman, the gallant and true-hearted girl, with whose exploits the country north and south has been ringing for a year past. She has come among us, on her way to the farther recesses of our cool and salubrious climate, in pursuit of relaxation from her arduous duties and a restoration of her health from the wounds and fatigues, to which she has been subjected. A full narrative of her "hair breadth escapes and ventures perilous," since she entered the secret service of the Union, would furnish forth a bulky volume, surpassing by far in real interest the most ingenious and highly-wrought fictions of the day. Of course, we can tarry for only a brief narration of a few of the most striking incidents of her career.

HER HISTORY,

since the war began, commences at Cleveland, Ohio, where she was residing when hostilities commenced in 1861.

Of mingled French and Spanish descent, and a native of New Orleans, where she first saw the light in 1833, she brought to the profession of the stage all the fire and vivacity of her lineage and clime, and soon became by her talents, as well as the graces of her person, exceedingly popular. From Cleveland, at an early period of the war, she removed to Louisville, Kentucky, and there her histrionic success continued. Among her many acquaintances and friends were some patroled confederate officers, who, during her engagment at Wood's theatre, in March, 1863, were very attentive, and presumed at length so far upon her courtesy, as to ask her to offer upon the stage, during the performance of 'The Seven Sisters,' the following toast: 'Here's to Jeff. Davis and the southern confederacy. May the south always maintain her honor and her rights.' Shocked in her patriotic feelings by this proposal, she at once privately acquainted Colonel Moore, the provost-marshal, who, after some serious conversation, held out such inducements as persuaded her to enter the secret service of the Union. This being understood, upon a given night, she offered the toast in question with full advice and consent of the authorities. The theatre was crowded, and the incident fell upon the multitude like a thunder-clap, confusing and mortifying all loyal persons present, and highly delighting their 'secesh neighbors.' This, of course, led to her mock arrest, and dismissal from the theatre. Speedily released, she next repaired to Nashville, and while there engaged at the new theatre, it was suggested to her by Colonel W. Truesdale, the chief of army police, to make a little excursion to the headquarters of the confederate Gen. Bragg. This idea fully coinciding with her own innate love of wild and dashing adventures, and an excellent pretext being availed in the fact that she had a brother in the service, she willingly undertook the expedition, after having solemnly accepted the following oath:

I, Pauline Cushman, do solemnly swear that I will bear true allegiance and fidelity to the Government of the United States of America, and that I will faithfully serve the same during the time I am employed in the service of the army of the Cumberland, to the best of my knowledge and ability; that I will observe and obey all the instructions which may be given me; that I will in no manner or form convey or give any information to the enemies of the Government of the United States which will be of advantage to them, or injury to the Federal cause, so help me God.

The Colonel then gave her a series of very minute, solemn and impressive instructions for her guidance, and she set forth as a refugee and victim of 'northern tyranny.'

SHE IS CAUGHT AT LAST.

All good as well as evil fortunes must one day take a turn, and at length, in the very plenitude of her renown, the fair and brave Pauline was taken in the dead of night by rebel scouts, while she was resting at the house of one Barum, a farmer residing near the Hardin turnpike, a road which she had been exploring after the capture of Nashville by the Union forces, her purpose being to ascertain the position and strength of the enemy after their retreat from the city.

JOHN MORGAN,

or, as she calls him, 'Johnnie Morgan, the renowned guerrilla chieftain, became her first custodian, and conducted her to the quarters of Gen. Forrest. On the way 'Johnnie' manifested all the gallantry that usually distinguishes the genuine son of Mars, in the presence of the fair, and offered the beautiful Pauline all his friendship, a magnificent diamond ring, and a silver-mounted revolver as keepsakes, and urged her to become his aide-de-camp so soon as she should be released.

HER INTERVIEW WITH GENERAL FORREST

was dramatic in the highest degree. The general was not a little please to see her in his camp, and greeted her with unfeigned warmth:

'Well, I'm really glad to see you,' said he 'I've been looking for you a long time, but I have got you this last shuffle' (the general still retained the phraseology of his profession before the war) 'and I intend to hold you. You have been here before—you know all the roads, bridle-paths, and hog-paths, even in the country.'

With finely assumed indignation, our heorine exclaimed:

"'Tis false! I have never been here before, and I should like to send a bullet through the man mean enough to make the charge.'

Forrest gazed at her with amazement, while she continued:

'Yes, and I'd send one through you, if I could, if you dared to repeat the assertion!'

He looked at her for another moment in silence, and then replied:

"Well, you're made of good fighting stuff, if you are a woman!"

"I got my visit south as a poor refugee, expelled from the Union lines on account of her strong southern feeling," and she accounted most adroitly for the absence of her baggage, stating that she had been deprived of all by Col. Truesdale. The General questioned her as to her plans for the future in the south, the position and resources of the Union army, &c., and all these inquiries she managed skillfully to meet with woman's ready wit. At length he summarily informed her that he should hand her over to the Provost-Marshal General, Col. McKinstry—"humane and just man" who would investigate the serious charges against her, and, according to the truth, decide.

After a little more bandying of words on both sides, Pauline still stoutly maintaining her confederate loyalty, she was dispatched to Gen. Bragg's headquarters, at Shelbyville, receiving, as she parted from 'Johnnie Morgan his good wishes, expressed in the following touching language:

'Good bye! I hope we shall meet again where we can have something better than corn bread, baked in ashes, and rot gut whiskey at fifteen dollars per quart!' Her parting song, as she rode away, was the well know ballad, 'Trust to Luck.'

By a curious coincidence, when she next saw the redoubtable Morgan, he was in prison at Columbus, and in his convict garb, while she was then free, and in the circle of federal authority. Advancing to him she laughingly exclaimed, as she held out her hand:

'How are you Johnnie?'

A QUAINT INTERVIEW WITH GEN. BRAXTON BRAGG.

was the result of her visit to Shelbyville.

Having been conducted to the General's tent, her colloquy with that imposing personage thus began:

Bragg—Of what country are you?

Pauline—I am of French and Spanish descent.

Bragg—Where were you born?

Pauline—In New Orleans.

Bragg—Your speech savors of the Yankee twang.

Pauline—'Well, as an actress, I have been playing Yankee parts so long, that I suppose I've caught the 'twang.'

She then went on to narrate the history of her fighting qualities from a woman—'my own' brave mother.'

'But to the point. You have important papers in your possession, and if they prove you to be a spy, nothing can save you from a little hemp.'

She carelessly replied: 'Well, go on, and root the whole thing up, if you like.'

Then picking up a packet of letters, he in turn said:

'Without sending spies, I know everything that goes on at the Yankee headquarters, better than their own clerks there!'

Pauline—But if I am found guilty, what will you do with me?

Bragg—You will surely be hanged.

Pauline—General, come, now! I don't think I'd be either useful or ornamental dangling at the end of a rope. If I must die, let me choose the method of my death.

Bragg—I cannot promise that, because you might prefer a natural mode of exit.

Pauline—No, if I must perish, let me be shot, for that would not hurt me so much

Shortly after this highly consolatory interview, Miss Pauline was taken exceedingly ill, and, having been found guilty and condemned, was saved from death by this circumstance alone. It was only after three months' captivity, that, one fine morning, while she still lay upon her sick bed, the joyous sound of the Union bubles, as the rebels fled and the federals, under Generals Gordon, Granger, Mitchell and Stanley entered the town, recalled her to liberty and life. After this it was that Gen. Garfield, in recognition of her long and most invaluable services, and her sufferings in two severe wounds received from the enemies, of the Union, while she was on duty, conferred upon her the rank of Major, by which she is now universally known.

Baltimore Convention.

A correspondent of the Daily Wisconsin describes the opening scenes of the Baltimore Convention;

The immense theatre in which the convention was held, was crowded to its utmost capacity by the delegates and the concourse of spectators. The Parquet and Dress Circle was filled with the beauty and fashion of this beauty-renowned city—many of the ladies holding small national flags, which they moved and tossed in response to the patriotic sentiments of the speakers. The vast gallery was piled tier on tier, with masses of the other sex, who thundered their applause down upon the heads of the delegates who occupied the stage and the main floor which was raised to the same level with the platform.

The interior of the building is tastefully decorated with the national banner, whose festoons drape every wall and pilaster. The scene would be most brilliant if there was only a little more light, but the principal windows from which daylight is admitted, are darkened by the masses of human beings crowded before them. In the evening, by gas light, the spectacle will be dazzling, I think.

The convention was called to order by Ex-Governor Morgan, of New York, who addressed a few words to the Convention, and among other things, said that slavery must now, by this party, be utterly extinguished. The sentiment brought down the house with tremendous cheers, and every allusion of any speaker, subsequently, to this idea of the immediate annihilation of the cause of the war, was the signal for long and universal applause from both the body of delegates and the whole audience. On motion of Mr. Morgan the Hon. R. J. Breckenridge took the chair as temporary presiding officer, escorted thereto by Hon. Ex-Governor Randall, of Wisconsin, and Hon. Ex-Governor King of New York.

The speech of Mr Breckenridge took the house by storm so earnest was it, so patriotic and so unqualifiedly loyal. One could not but recollect that his nephew was at the moment tracing his traitorous footsteps in soil of an adjoining state, wet with the blood of the sons and brothers of the men here before him, when then the aged patriot in tones all trembling with emotion said: "This party is more devoted to the Constitution than any generation that lived under it; I am not a proslavery man, I hate slavery, I am prepared to go farther than the Republican party would go—to use every power of war or peace to exterminate slavery from the continent, and I say away with it from the continent, and I say away with it from the face of the earth, and I will follow this Union party to the end of the earth, and, if necessary, to the gates of Death." The entire audience rose to their feet with cheers upon cheers, waving hats and handkerchiefs and making every demonstration of applause.

CLOSING UP.—Gen. Pope with his command is on his way from the west to reinforce Grant and Averill, Crook and Hunter all moving Richmond ward. Pope will undoubtedly reach Grant by way of the White House; the others by the way of Lynchburg and Gordonsville.—La Crosse Republican.

WE SEE no immediate prospect of Gen. Popo's reaching Grant by the way of the White House, or any other way, as he is still in this city attending to his duties as commander of this department, having never been ordered away. The impression is generally abroad that Gen. Pope was, some weeks since, ordered to the front, but we presume the order never had an existence, except in the brain of some letter writer. Valuable as Gen. Pope's services would be at the front, the government still sees fit to keep him here.—Wisconsin.

NATIVE WINES.—Sacred History abounds in allusions to wine, and as there are thirteen distinct Hebrew terms used in the Bible to distinguish vintages of different kinds, condition and ages, it is evident that the "ancient people" were no less particular in the matter of "brands," than are the people of the present day. The Greek and Romans had two hundred varieties, of which the "Falernian" was the choicest; and the products of particular vinyards were as highly esteemed in Athens and Rome, as the Cliquot and Metternich wines now are in London and Paris. The wines of antiquity were often villainously adulterated. The art of "doctoring" the juice of the grape is so far from being a modern invention that it dates back to the siege of Troy. Helen, the fair and frail, is said to have learned the trick in Egypt, and to have practised it for the sake of increasing the exhilerating properties of the wine she gave to the defenders of the city after a hard battle with the Greeks.

The safest and best of all exhilarants is good wine: Many physicians and matrons suppose we must have foreign wine. There is one hundred times the quantity of wines exported from France, Spain and Germany, than can be manufactured there from the quantity of grapes. There is but one safeguard, and that is to use our pure native wines. Imported wines now pay a heavy duty, and a bottle of real Port or Sherry can only be obtained at a high price. There is no duty or tax on native wines—therefore, in the name of purity and economy, let us have our own native wines.

Messrs. Bennett Pieters & Co., of Chicago, always have an assorted stock of fine imported wines in U. S. bonded warehouses, from the most reliable houses of France, Spain and Germany, also brandies, gins, rums, &c.; and have for the past three years been making extensive preparations for the manufacture of home-made wines. They have the most extensive arrangements with fruit, growers, and in the proper season they gather strawberries, cherries, peaches, blackberries, raspberries &c. &c., to an enormous amount. Their strawberry, cherry, blackberry, raspberry and muscat wines far excel many of the imported wines, both in purity and exhilarating effects. Many of these home-made wines are being largely adulterated, and many a bottle of cherry wine is sold, which never had a drop of cherry juice in it. Buy none but those with the unmistakable label of Bennett Pieters & Co. These gentlemen are men of high respectability, and guarantee every article from their house, pure and unadulterated.

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM.

This is the most delightful and extraordinary article ever discovered. It changes the sun-burnt face and hands to a pearly satin texture of ravishing beauty, imparting the marble purity of youth and the distingue appearance so inviting in the city belle of fashion. It removes tan, freckles, pimples, and roughness from the skin, leaving the complexion fresh, transparent and smooth. It contains no material injurious to the skin. Patronized by Actresses and Opera Singers. It is what every lady should have. Sold everywhere.

HAIR DYE! HAIR DYE!

BACHELOR'S CELEBRATED HAIR DYE is the best in the world! The only Harmless, True and Reliable Dye known. This splendid Hair Dye is perfect—changes Red, Rusty, or Grey Hair, instantly to a Glossy Black or Natural Brown, without injuring the hair or staining the skin, leaving the hair soft and beautiful, imparts fresh vitality, frequently restoring its pristine color, and rectifies the ill effects of bad dyes. The genuine is signed WILLIAM A. BACHELOR, all others are mere imitations, and should be avoided. Sold by all Druggists, &c. Factory—81 BARCLAY St., N. Y. BACHELOR'S NEW TOILET CREAM for Dressing the Hair Je20dawly

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE.

It is not a DYE, but restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of lunar caustic, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and afford of themselves no dressing. Heimstreet's Inimitable Coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a luxuriant beauty, promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time; being the original Hair coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured by them of the commercial agents, D. S. BARNES & Co, 202 Broadway, New York. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1 augldaweowly

WYNKOOP'S ICELAND PECTORAL.

Diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Pulmonary Organs are ever prevalent, insidious and dangerous. The properties of a medicine to alleviate, cure, and uproot these complaints, must be expectorant, anodyne and invigorating, loosening the mucus of the throat, and imparting tone to the entire system. No discovery in medical science ever mastered this class of diseases like Dr. Wynkoop's Iceland Pectoral. It is used with the most astonishing results in all cases of Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Diptheria or Putrid Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, Coughs, Colds, Nervous Irritability, &c.

The Rev. J. J. POTTER certifies—"that I have used Dr. Wynkoop's Pectoral for several years, myself and in my family, for severe pulmonary complaints, and have recommended it to many others, and have never seen its equal" Rev. J. J. POTTER, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Hundreds and thousands of important testimonials could be produced, showing its remarkable cures and that it never fails.

It is composed of pure Iceland Moss, Balm of Gilead, Peruvian Balsam, Elecampane, Comfrey, Burdock, and other invaluable expectorant and tonic ingredients. It is harmless, prompt and lasting. Invalids and sufferers cannot afford to neglect a trial. Every family should have it. It is remarkable for Croup. Full descriptions, recommendations and directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all the principal Druggists.

on the Monterey Water Power, has two sets of wide machinery in full operation, and is now putting in the third set, making it the

Largest Mill in the Northwest,

and about three times as large as the other Factories in the State.

Having a large establishment he is enabled to employ better workmen, do business to better advantage and with more promptness, and offer to customers better inducements for their patronage than can be done at any other mill in the State.

Those who have used the cloths made at this mill, both by myself and tenants for the past 12 years can bear witness to their superior quality. If other testimony were needed, the following from the dry goods article in the Chicago Tribune, of November 4th, 1863, might be added:

"The trade in woolen goods is now unusually brisk, and rarely if ever have we seen such a large and varied stock in market. It is noticeable also that the best qualities are of domestic manufacture, and quite a large assortment of Western goods are offered. Some of the best plain cassimeres in market at present are manufactured—not in England nor France—nor even in the Eastern States—but in Wisconsin and in several portions of Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. The goods sent to our market from the "Stone Mills," Janesville, (as exhibited by their agents, Bowen Bros., of this city,) deserve special mention because of their excellence in every particular, and because we consider it our duty as a journalist to aid and foster home manufactures."

Customers may rely upon having their work done promptly, and from June 15th to Sept. 15th at the following extremely low rates.

TERMS OF EXCHANGE:

For 1¼ lbs. of wool a yard of Jeans, Tweed or Union Cassimere.

For 1¾ lbs. of wool a yard of Satinett or Flannel.

For 2 lbs. of wool a yard of Cassimere, either plain or fancy.

PRICES FOR MANUFACTURING:

50 lbs or more of wool, from 15 to 25 cents per yard, according to the kind of cloth made.

Roll Carding, where the bundles are 15 lbs or more, 4 cents per lb.

Cloth Dressing of all kinds done from 10 to 20 cents per yard.

Persons living at a distance can send their wool by Railroad or by Express, with full directions, and have their wool or cloth promptly returned to them.

For President,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN,

OF ILLINOIS.

For Vice-President,

ANDREW JOHNSON,

OF TENNESSEE.

MISS MAJOR PAULINE CUSHMAN.

Thrilling Adventure of a Lady in the Secret Service.

We have now among us one of those heroic women, whose glorious courage and unflinching personal sacrifice have given a tinge of the olden times romances to the somber annals of our terrible civil war. There arrived yesterday at the Astor House, where she will remain for a few days, Miss Major Pauline Cushman, the gallant and true-hearted girl, with whose exploits the country north and south has been ringing for a year past. She has come among us, on her way to the farther recesses of our cool and salubrious climate, in pursuit of relaxation from her arduous duties and a restoration of her health from the wounds and fatigues, to which she has been subjected. A full narrative of her "hair breadth escapes and ventures perilous," since she entered the secret service of the Union, would furnish forth a bulky volume, surpassing by far in real interest the most ingenious and highly-wrought fictions of the day. Of course, we can tarry for only a brief narration of a few of the most striking incidents of her career.

HER HISTORY,

since the war began, commences at Cleveland, Ohio, where she was residing when hostilities commenced in 1861.

Of mingled French and Spanish descent, and a native of New Orleans, where she first saw the light in 1833, she brought to the profession of the stage all the fire and vivacity of her lineage and clime, and soon became by her talents, as well as the graces of her person, exceedingly popular. From Cleveland, at an early period of the war, she removed to Louisville, Kentucky, and there her histrionic success continued. Among her many acquaintances and friends were some patroled confederate officers, who, during her engagment at Wood's theatre, in March, 1863, were very attentive, and presumed at length so far upon her courtesy, as to ask her to offer upon the stage, during the performance of 'The Seven Sisters,' the following toast: 'Here's to Jeff. Davis and the southern confederacy. May the south always maintain her honor and her rights.' Shocked in her patriotic feelings by this proposal, she at once privately acquainted Colonel Moore, the provost-marshal, who, after some serious conversation, held out such inducements as persuaded her to enter the secret service of the Union. This being understood, upon a given night, she offered the toast in question with full advice and consent of the authorities. The theatre was crowded, and the incident fell upon the multitude like a thunder-clap, confusing and mortifying all loyal persons present, and highly delighting their 'secesh neighbors.' This, of course, led to her mock arrest, and dismissal from the theatre. Speedily released, she next repaired to Nashville, and while there engaged at the new theatre, it was suggested to her by Colonel W. Truesdale, the chief of army police, to make a little excursion to the headquarters of the confederate Gen. Bragg. This idea fully coinciding with her own innate love of wild and dashing adventures, and an excellent pretext being availed in the fact that she had a brother in the service, she willingly undertook the expedition, after having solemnly accepted the following oath:

I, Pauline Cushman, do solemnly swear that I will bear true allegiance and fidelity to the Government of the United States of America, and that I will faithfully serve the same during the time I am employed in the service of the army of the Cumberland, to the best of my knowledge and ability; that I will observe and obey all the instructions which may be given me; that I will in no manner or form convey or give any information to the enemies of the Government of the United States which will be of advantage to them, or injury to the Federal cause, so help me God.

The Colonel then gave her a series of very minute, solemn and impressive instructions for her guidance, and she set forth as a refugee and victim of 'northern tyranny.'

SHE IS CAUGHT AT LAST.

All good as well as evil fortunes must one day take a turn, and at length, in the very plenitude of her renown, the fair and brave Pauline was taken in the dead of night by rebel scouts, while she was resting at the house of one Barum, a farmer residing near the Hardin turnpike, a road which she had been exploring after the capture of Nashville by the Union forces, her purpose being to ascertain the position and strength of the enemy after their retreat from the city.

JOHN MORGAN,

or, as she calls him, 'Johnnie Morgan, the renowned guerrilla chieftain, became her first custodian, and conducted her to the quarters of Gen. Forrest. On the way 'Johnnie' manifested all the gallantry that usually distinguishes the genuine son of Mars, in the presence of the fair, and offered the beautiful Pauline all his friendship, a magnificent diamond ring, and a silver-mounted revolver as keepsakes, and urged her to become his aide-de-camp so soon as she should be released.

HER INTERVIEW WITH GENERAL FORREST

was dramatic in the highest degree. The general was not a little plense to see her in his camp, and greeted her with unfeigned warmth:

'Well, I'm really glad to see you,' said he 'I've been looking for you a long time, but I have got you this last shuffle' (the general still retained the phraseology of his profession before the war) 'and I intend to hold you. You have been here before—you know all the roads, bridle-paths, and hog-paths, even in the country.'

With finely assumed indignation, our heorine exclaimed:

"Tis false! I have never been here before, and I should like to send a bullet through the man mean enough to make the charge.'

Forrest gazed at her with amazement, while she continued:

'Yes, and I'd send one through you, if I could, if you dared to repeat the assertion!'

He looked at her for another moment in silence, and then replied:

"Well, you're made of good fighting stuff, if you are a woman!"

"I got my visit south as a poor refugee, expelled from the Union lines on account of her strong southern feeling," and she accounted most adroitly for the absence of her baggage, stating that she had been deprived of all by Col. Truesdale. The General questioned her as to her plans for the future in the south, the position and resources of the Union army, &c., and all these inquiries she managed skillfully to meet with woman's ready wit. At length he summarily informed her that he should hand her over to the Provost-Marshal General, Col. McKinstry—"humane and just man" who would investigate the serious charges against her, and, according to the truth, decide.

After a little more bandying of words on both sides, Pauline still stoutly maintaining her confederate loyalty, she was dispatched to Gen. Bragg's headquarters, at Shelbyville, receiving, as she parted from Johnnie Morgan his good wishes, expressed in the following touching language:

'Good bye! I hope we shall meet again where we can have something better than corn bread, baked in ashes, and rot gut whiskey at fifteen dollars per quart!' Her parting song, as she rode away, was the well know ballad, 'Trust to Luck.'

By a curious coincidence, when she next saw the redoubtable Morgan, he was in prison at Columbus, and in his convict garb, while she was then free, and in the circle of federal authority. Advancing to him she laughingly exclaimed, as she held out her hand:

'How are you Johnnie?'

A QUAINT INTERVIEW WITH GEN. BRAXTON BRAGG.

was the result of her visit to Shelbyville.

Having been conducted to the General's tent, her colloquy with that imposing personage thus began:

Bragg—Of what country are you?

Pauline—I am of French and Spanish descent.

Bragg—Where were you born?

Pauline—In New Orleans.

Dragg—Your speech savors of the Yankee twang.

Pauline—Well, as an actress, I have been playing Yankee parts so long, that I suppose I've caught the 'twang.'

She then went on to narrate the history of her fighting qualities from a woman—'my own' brave mother.'

'But to the point. You have important papers in your possession, and if they prove you to be a spy, nothing can save you from a little hemp.'

She carelessly replied: 'Well, go on, and root the whole thing up, if you like.'

Then picking up a packet of letters, he in turn said:

'Without sending spies, I know everything that goes on at the Yankee headquarters, better than their own clerks there!'

Pauline—But if I am found guilty, what will you do with me?

Bragg—You will surely be hanged.

Pauline—General, come, now! I don't think I'd be either useful or ornamental dangling at the end of a rope. If I must die, let me choose the method of my death.

Bragg—I cannot promise that, because you might prefer a natural mode of exit.

Pauline—No, if I must perish, let me be shot, for that would not hurt me so much

Shortly after this highly consolatory interview, Miss Pauline was taken exceedingly ill, and, having been found guilty and condemned, was saved from death by this circumstance alone. It was only after three months' captivity, 'that, one fine morning, while she still lay upon her sick bed, the joyous sound of the Union bubles, as the rebels fled and the federals, under Generals Gordon, Granger, Mitchell and Stanley entered the town, recalled her to liberty and life. After this it was that Gen. Garfield, in recognition of her long and most invaluable services, and her sufferings in two severe wounds received from the enemies, of the Union, while she was on duty, conferred upon her the rank of Major, by which she is now universally known.

Baltimore Convention.

A correspondent of the Daily Wisconsin describes the opening scenes of the Baltimore Convention;

The immense theatre in which the convention was held, was crowded to its utmost capacity by the delegates and the concourse of spectators. The Parquet and Dress Circle was filled with the beauty and fashion of this beauty-renowned city—many of the ladies holding small national flags, which they moved and tossed in response to the patriotic sentiments of the speakers. The vast gallery was piled tier on tier, with masses of the other sex, who thundered their applause down upon the heads of the delegates who occupied the stage and the main floor which was raised to the same level with the platform.

The interior of the building is tastefully decorated with the national banner, whose festoons drape every wall and pilaster. The scene would be most brilliant if there was only a little more light, but the principal windows from which daylight is admitted, are darkened by the masses of human beings crowded before them. In the evening, by gas light, the spectacle will be dazzling, I think.

The convention was called to order by Ex-Governor Morgan, of New York, who addressed a few words to the Convention, and among other things, said that slavery must now, by this party, be utterly extinguished. The sentiment brought down the house with tremendous cheers, and every allusion of any speaker, subsequently, to this idea of the immediate annihilation of the cause of the war, was the signal for long and universal applause from both the body of delegates and the whole audience. On motion of Mr. Morgan the Hon. R. J. Breckenridge took the chair as temporary presiding officer, escorted thereto by Hon. Ex-Governor Randall, of Wisconsin, and Hon. Ex-Governor King of New York.

The speech of Mr Breckenridge took the house by storm so earnest was it, so patriotic and so unqualifiedly loyal. One could not but recollect that his nephew was at the moment tracing his traitorous footsteps in soil of an adjoining state, wet with the blood of the sons and brothers of the men here before him, when then the aged patriot in tones all trembling with emotion said: "This party is more devoted to the Constitution than any generation that lived under it; I am not a proslavery man, I hate slavery, I am prepared to go farther than the Republican party would go—to use every power of war or peace to exterminate slavery from the continent, and I say away with it from the continent, and I say away with it from the face of the earth, and I will follow this Union party to the end of the earth, and, if necessary, to the gates of Death." The entire audience rose to their feet with cheers upon cheers, waving hats and handkerchiefs and making every demonstration of applause.

CLOSING UP.—Gen. Pope with his command is on his way from the west to reinforce Grant and Averill, Crook and Hunter all moving Richmond ward. Pope will undoubtedly reach Grant by way of the White House; the others by the way of Lynchburg and Gordonsville.—La Crosse Republican.

WE SEE no immediate prospect of Gen. Popo's reaching Grant by the way of the White House, or any other way, as he is still in this city attending to his duties as commander of this department, having never been ordered away. The impression is generally abroad that Gen. Popo was, some weeks since, ordered to the front, but we presume the order never had an existence, except in the brain of some letter writer. Valuable as Gen. Popo's services would be at the front, the government still sees fit to keep him here.—Wisconsin.

NATIVE WINES.—Sacred History abounds in allusions to wine, and as there are thirteen distinct Hebrew terms used in the Bible to distinguish vintages of different kinds, condition and ages, it is evident that the "ancient people" were no less particular in the matter of "brands" than are the people of the present day. The Greek and Romans had two hundred varieties, of which the "Falernian" was the choicest; and the products of particular vinyards were as highly esteemed in Athens and Rome, as the Cliquot and Metternich wines now are in London and Paris. The wines of antiquity were often villainously adulterated. The art of "doctoring" the juice of the grape is so far from being a modern invention that it dates back to the siege of Troy. Helen, the fair and frail, is said to have learned the trick in Egypt, and to have practised it for the sake of increasing the exhilerating properties of the wine she gave to the defenders of the city after a hard battle with the Greeks.

The safest and best of all exhilarants is good wine: Many physicians and matrons suppose we must have foreign wine. There is one hundred times the quantity of wines exported from France, Spain and Germany, than can be manufactured there from the quantity of grapes. There is but one safeguard, and that is to use our pure native wines. Imported wines now pay a heavy duty, and a bottle of real Port or Sherry can only be obtained at a high price. There is no duty or tax on native wines—therefore, in the name of purity and economy, let us have our own native wines.

Messrs. Bennett Piesers & Co., of Chicago, always have an assorted stock of fine imported wines in U. S. bonded warehouses, from the most reliable houses of France, Spain and Germany, also brandies, gins, rums, &c.; and have for the past three years been making extensive preparations for the manufacture of home-made wines. They have the most extensive arrangements with fruit, growers, and in the proper season they gather strawberries, cherries, peaches, blackberries, raspberries &c. &c., to an enormous amount. Their strawberry, cherry, blackberry, raspberry and muscat wines far excel many of the imported wines, both in purity and exhilarating effects. Many of these home-made wines are being largely adulterated, and many a bottle of cherry wine is sold, which never had a drop of cherry juice in it. Buy none but those with the unmistakable label of Bennett Piesers & Co. These gentlemen are men of high respectability, and guarantee every article from their house, pure and unadulterated.

HAIR DYE! HAIR DYE!

BACHELOR'S CELEBRATED HAIR DYE is the best in the world! The only Harmless, True and Reliable Dye Known. This splendid Hair Dye is perfect—changes Red, Rusty, or Grey Hair, instantly to a Glossy Black or Natural Brown, without injuring the hair or staining the skin, leaving the hair soft and beautiful, imparts fresh vitality, frequently restoring its pristine color, and rectifies the ill effects of bad dyes. The genuine is signed WILLIAM A. BACHELOR, all others are mere imitations, and should be avoided. Sold by all Druggists, &c. Factory—81 BARCLAY St., N. Y. HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE.

It is not a DYE, but restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of lunar caustic, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and afford of themselves no dressing. Heimstreet's Inimitable Coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a luxuriant beauty, promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time; being the original Hair coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured by them of the commercial agents, D. S. BARNES & Co., 202 Broadway, New York. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1. aug1daweowly

WYNKOOP'S ICELAND PECTORAL.

Diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Pulmonary Organs are ever prevalent, insidious and dangerous. The properties of a medicine to alleviate, cure, and uproot these complaints, must be expectorant, anodyne and invigorating, loosening the mucus of the throat, and imparting tone to the entire system. No discovery in medical science ever mastered this class of diseases like Dr. Wynkoop's Iceland Pectoral. It is used with the most astonishing results in all cases of Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Diptheria or Putrid Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, Coughs, Colds, Nervous Irritability, &c.

The Rev. J. J. Porter certifies—"that I have used Dr. Wynkoop's Pectoral for several years, myself and in my family, for severe pulmonary complaints, and have recommended it to many others, and have never seen its equal." Rev. J. J. PORTER, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Hundreds and thousands of important testimonials could be produced, showing its remarkable cures and that it never fails.

It is composed of pure Iceland Moss, Balm of Gilead, Peruvian Balsam, Elecampane, Comfrey, Burdock, and other invaluable expectorant and tonic ingredients. It is harmless, prompt and lasting. Invalids and sufferers cannot afford to neglect a trial. Every family should have it. It is remarkable for Croup. Full descriptions, recommendations and directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all the principal Druggists.

WOOLEN FACTORY,

Janesville, Wis.

The subscriber at the Factory known as the

"STONE MILLS,"

on the Monterey Water Power, has two sets of wide machinery in full operation, and is now putting in the third set, making it the

Largest Mill in the Northwest,

and about three times as large as the other Factories in the State.

Having a large establishment he is enabled to employ better workmen, do business to better advantage and with more promptness, and offer to customers better inducements for their patronage than can be done at any other mill in the State.

Those who have used the cloths made at this mill, both by myself and tenants for the past 12 years can bear witness to their superior quality. If other testimony were needed, the following from the dry goods article in the Chicago Tribune, of November 4th, 1863, might be added:

"The trade in woolen goods is now unusually brisk, and rarely if ever have we seen such a large and varied stock in market. It is noticeable also that the best qualities are of domestic manufacture, and quite a large assortment of Western goods are offered. Some of the best plain cassimeres in market at present are manufactured—not in England nor France—nor even in the Eastern States—but in Wisconsin and in several portions of Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. The goods sent to our market from the "Stone Mills," Janesville, (as exhibited by their agents, Bowen Bros., of this city,) deserve special mention because of their excellence in every particular, and because we consider it our duty as a journalist to aid and foster home manufactures."

Customers may rely upon having their work done promptly, and from June 15th to Sept. 15th at the following extremely low rates.

TERMS OF EXCHANGE:

For 1½ lbs. of wool a yard of Jeans, Tweed or Union Cassimere.

For 1¾ lbs. of wool a yard of Satinett or Flannel.

For 2 lbs. of wool a yard of Cassimere, either plain or fancy.

PRICES FOR MANUFACTURING:

50 lbs. or more of wool, from 15 to 25 cents per yard, according to the kind of cloth made.

Roll Carding, where the bundles are 15 lbs or more, 4 cents per lb.

Cloth Dressing of all kinds done from 10 to 20 cents per yard.

Persons living at a distance can send their wool by Railroad or by Express, with full directions, and have their wool or cloth promptly returned to them.

A good assortment of CLOTHS for sale 25 per cent lower than they can be bought at any other place in town. F. WHITAKER.

DR. STRICKLAND'S

is a compound of astringents, absorbents, stimulants and carminatives, which every physician acknowledges is the only preparation that will effect a permanent cure of Diarrhea and Dysentery. This Anti-Cholera Mixture is now in use in several of our Army Hospitals, where it gives the greatest satisfaction. It has saved the lives of thousands of our soldiers and citizens, and we will guarantee it to be the best remedy in the world for Diarrhea and Dysentery.

Mr. Woods, of Covington, Ky., will be most happy to satisfy any one as to the virtue of Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture; in fact, we have a great number of testimonials from patients who have been cured after being pronounced incurable by their physicians, some after taking only one bottle of Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture. If you suffer with Diarrhea and Dysentery, try one bottle.

SOLDIERS,

you ought not to be without such a valuable medicine. The Cincinnati National Union, of April 24th, says that "thousands of our soldiers have been saved by the use of Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture."

HORRIBLE.—A shocking story is told of a man in Litchfield, Ct., who went to sit up with a sick friend. During the night, the watcher had an attack of the delirium tremens, and in his frenzy assaulted the helpless invalid and beat him to death! When the sick chamber was entered at an early hour in the morning, the madman was found dragging the corpse of his victim about the floor, kicking and stamping upon him. The head of the dead man was shockingly cut and mangled. The maniac murderer was with difficulty secured, manifesting a savage determination to continue his work of violence.

ROCK CO., WISCONSIN, LANDS FOR SALE BY AUCTION.

Will be sold by auction, on

Thursday the 23d of June Next,

in the city of Janesville, Rock county, Wisconsin, thirty-eight hundred and forty (3840) acres of the finest agricultural lands in the State. They are situated about ten miles from Janesville, and adjoining the village of Footville, with the Beloit & Madison Railroad running through them, and the Milwaukee & Southern Wisconsin Railroad on their border and are composed of about an equal quantity of heavy "grove" timber and prairie. They were selected for their present owner for investment, nearly thirty years ago, as the best lands, in all respects, in Rock county, and this county, it is well known, is the garden of Wisconsin.

They will be sold in farm parcels, and the purchase money, less twenty or twenty-five per cent, which must be paid in cash, may remain on mortgage at seven per cent. interest, for seven or ten years, excepting timber lots which will be sold for cash.

There will also be sold at the same time and place, and in the same manner, but wholly for cash, twenty two hundred (2,200) acres of prime lands in Marathon county, near the town of Wausau, selected about eight years ago.

A more eligible opportunity for farmers to secure most desirable farms, or for the investment of capital, could not be offered.

For further particulars apply personally, or by letter to Mr. Dawson, No. 9 East 10th street, New York, who will be in Janesville ten days before the sale takes place; to J. R. Pease, Esq., counsellor at law, Janesville, or to Mr. John Howe, on the property, at Footville. 485*my7dawGw

FARMERS, TAKE NOTICE!

The undersigned are having made at Beloit, Wis., one hundred of those Reapers known as the Cheap, or Webber Reaper!

Notwithstanding the increase of nearly double in price over other years of all materials put in Reapers, we are going to sell for 1864 at about the same prices as before. Our prices at the shop are $110 cash for single Reaper, for Reaper and Mower $140. We are making Fifty Mowers, which will be warranted to do good work. They will be made of steel bars of the Buckeye pattern, except the hinges.

Those buying Reapers alone can have Mowers the next year or thereafter for the same price, as the difference between reaper and mower.

We do not deem it necessary to extol our Reaper, for it is already known to be the only two-horse Reaper in use. Notwithstanding a great many are used with two horses, they ought to use three or four, and some of them six, to be as easy to the horse as ours are to two ordinary horses.

Please send in your orders early to be sure of a machine, as positively only one hundred of them will be built, and we will warrant each and every machine to Work Well in all Kinds of Grain!

The Reels will be different from last year. They will be the over hanging reel, and have six bats instead of four keeping the reel, holding the grain to the sickle steady.

They will be shipped to any depot in Wisconsin or Illinois. Ten per cent. will be added if sold on time. One half the 1st of September, 1864, the balance the 1st of September, 1865.

Those buying machines will confer a favor by giving this machine publicity in their respective neighborhoods. When material gets to its usual stage we intend to make it a ninety dollar machine, and should have done it but for the unprecedented high prices of everything to construct machines with.

The Reaper Shop at Afton!

will attend strictly to the repairing of the Webber Reaper. None others wanted. We are prepared to change from chain to belt, put on castor wheels upon short notice. Men will be on hand to repair promptly. Charges light as the cost of material will admit. We shall manufacture none at that place, consequently we will be prepared to repair. Work solicited. All orders should be directed to

GOTTSCHALK ON KNABE.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystaline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

Signed, L. M. GOTTSCHALK.

Superior and Beautiful Pictures

FROM LIFE!!

It is not intended, or PRETENDED, that Pictures can be had CHEAPER at the Parlors than elsewhere, and we shall not undertake to compete with others in Janesville, on low prices, but it is promised that the prices for pictures at the Parlors shall be as low as the same kind of work can be done for anywhere, and CHEAPER than many first class Galleries adopt. It shall be the constant aim of the proprietor of the "Parlor" to keep pace with all the improvements and discoveries made by the most advanced and scientific artists in the country. Those who are longing for

of their children, but who have failed through the impatience of the artist or other difficulties, are invited to call, when we promise that to all the means of the art known, to get them, shall be added patience and forbearance.

Old Daguerreotypes and Ambrotypes

Janesville Daily Gazette.

MONDAY, JUNE 13, 1864.

HORRIBLE.—A shocking story is told of a man in Litchfield, Ct., who went to sit up with a sick friend. During the night, the watcher had an attack of the delirium tremens, and in his frenzy assaulted the helpless invalid and beat him to death! When the sick chamber was entered at an early hour in the morning, the madman was found dragging the corpse of his victim about the floor, kicking and stamping upon him. The head of the dead man was shockingly cut and mangled. The maniac murderer was with difficulty secured, manifesting a savage determination to continue his work of violence.

Will be sold by auction, on

Thursday the 23d of June Next,

in the city of Janesville, Rock county, Wisconsin, thirty-eight hundred and forty (3840) acres of the finest agricultural lands in the State. They are situated about ten miles from Janesville, and adjoining the village of Footville, with the Beloit & Madison Railroad running through them, and the Milwaukee & Southern Wisconsin Railroad on their border, and are composed of about an equal quantity of heavy "grove" timber and prairie. They were selected for their present owner for investment, nearly thirty years ago, as the best lands, in all respects, in Rock county, and this county, it is well known, is the garden of Wisconsin.

They will be sold in farm parcels, and the purchase money, less twenty or twenty-five per cent, which must be paid in cash, may remain on mortgage at seven per cent. interest, for seven or ten years, excepting timber lots which will be sold for cash.

There will also be sold at the same time and place, and in the same manner, but wholly for cash, twenty two hundred (2,200) acres of prime lands in Marathon county, near the town of Wausau, selected about eight years ago.

A more eligible opportunity for farmers to secure most desirable farms, or for the investment of capital, could not be offered.

For further particulars apply personally, or by letter to Mr. Dawson, No. 9 East 10th street, New York, who will be in Janesville ten days before the sale takes place; to J. F. R. Pease, Esq., counsellor at law, Janesville, or to Mr. John Howe, on the property, at Footville. 468*my7dawGw

FARMERS, TAKE NOTICE!

The undersigned are having made at Beloit, Wis., one hundred of those Reapers known as the Cheap, or Webber Reaper!

Notwithstanding the increase of nearly double in price over other years of all materials put in Reapers, we are going to sell for 1864 at about the same prices go before. Our prices at the shop are $110 cash for single Reaper, for Reaper and Mower $140. We are making Fifty Mowers, which will be warranted to do good work. They will be made of steel bars of the Buckeye pattern, except the hinges.

Those buying Reapers alone can have Mowers the next year or thereafter for the same price, as the difference between reaper and mower.

We do not deem it necessary to extol our Reaper, for it is already known to be the only two-horse Reaper in use. Notwithstanding a great many are used with two horses, they ought to use three or four, and some of them six, to be as easy to the horse as ours are to two ordinary horses.

Please send in your orders early to be sure of a machine, as positively only one hundred of them will be built, and we will warrant each and every machine to Work Well in all Kinds of Grain!

The Reels will be different from last year. They will be the over hanging reel, and have six bats instead of four keeping the reel, holding the grain to the sickle steady.

They will be shipped to any depot in Wisconsin or Illinois. Ten per cent. will be added if sold on time. One half the 1st of September, 1864, the balance the 1st of September, 1865.

Those buying machines will confer a favor by giving this machine publicity in their respective neighborhoods. When material gets to its usual stage we intend to make it a ninety dollar machine, and should have done it but for the unprecedented high prices of everything to construct machines with.

The Reaper Shop at Afton!

will attend strictly to the repairing of the Webber Reaper. None others wanted. We are prepared to change from chain to belt, put on castor wheels upon short notice. Men will be on hand to repair promptly. Charges light as the cost of material will admit. We shall manufacture none at that place, consequently we will be prepared to repair. Work solicited. All orders should be directed to

GOTTSCHALK ON KNABE.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystaline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

Signed, L. M. GOTTSCHALK.

Superior and Beautiful Pictures

FROM LIFE!

It is not intended, or PRETENDED, that Pictures can be had CHEAPER at the Parlors than elsewhere, and we shall not undertake to compete with others in Janesville, on low prices, but it is promised that the prices for pictures at the Parlors shall be as low as the same kind of work can be done for anywhere, and CHEAPER than many first class Galleries adopt. It shall be the constant aim of the proprietor of the "Parlor" to keep pace with all the improvements and discoveries made by the most advanced and scientific artists in the country. Those who are longing for

of their children, but who have failed through the impatience of the artist or other difficulties, are invited to call, when we promise that to all the means of the art known, to get them, shall be added patience and forbearance.

STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors of this justly esteemed and well-known brand of Stomach Bitters, do not deem it necessary, in order to give their goods a fictitious, or even an enhanced value, to take a fling at all other Bitters, and proclaim in small capitals that they are worthless. Our Bitters do not need this, as we place them before the public on their merits, and invite your careful attention to the goods we allow our brand upon, knowing as we do so, that our reputation is at stake. The name, "Red Jacket," is taken from the original compound by the native child of the forrest, and with the addition of a few herbs by Dr. Chapin, made more agreeable to the taste, they have now a peculiarly healthy, soothing and recuperative influence, especially for the patient rising from the bed of sickness, loss of appetite, distress after eating, dizziness, and all diseases arising from Torpid Liver or Indigestion.

They strengthen and invigorate the system
They are unequaled for general debility.
They are a sure cure for dyspepsia.
They give a good and healthy appetite
They assist digestion.
They are the best stimulant in existence
They are a sure preventive of Fever and Ague
They relieve constipation.
They cure Nervous Headache.
They are perfectly pure and palatable.
They make the debilitated strong, and restore to strength the exhausted

Aged persons and delicate females will find they can save large doctor's bills by the use of these Bitters

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Over the Post Office!

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

COMPANY!

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

Patent Medicines.

Good News for the Unfortunate!

THE LONG SOUGHT FOR

DISCOVERED AT LAST.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

AND

CHEROKEE INJECTION!

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic cures all diseases of the urinary organs.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gleet, Gonorrhea, Fluor Albus. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent, removing all scalding, heat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

Price, Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

CHEROKEE CURE!

This medicine is a simple vegetable extract, and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated, it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn case.

To those who have trifled with their constitution, until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say, DESPAIR NOT! the CHEROKEE CURE will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed!

Price, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5, and forwarded by Express to all parts of the world.

STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors of this justly esteemed and well-known brand of Stomach Bitters, do not deem it necessary, in order to give their goods a fictitious, or even an enhanced value, to take a flag at all other Bitters, and proclaim in small capitals that they are worthless. Our Bitters do not need this, as we place them before the public on their merits, and invite your careful attention to the goods we allow our brand upon, knowing as we do so, that our reputation is at stake. The name, "Red Jacket," is taken from the original compound by the native child of the forest, and with the addition of a few herbs by Dr. Chapin, made more agreeable to the taste, they have now a peculiarly healthy, soothing and recuperative influence, especially for the patient rising from the bed of sickness, loss of appetite, distress after eating, dizziness, and all diseases arising from Torpid Liver or Indigestion.

They strengthen and invigorate the system.
They are unequaled for general debility.
They are a sure cure for dyspepsia.
They give a good and healthy appetite.
They assist digestion.
They are the best stimulant in existence.
They are a sure preventive of Fever and Ague.
They relieve constipation.
They cure Nervous Headache.
They are perfectly pure and palatable.
They make the debilitated strong, and restore to strength the exhausted.

Aged persons and delicate females will find they can save large doctor's bills by the use of these Bitters.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Over the Post Office!

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

COMPANY!

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion: the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

Patent Medicines.

Good News for the Unfortunate!

THE LONG SOUGHT FOR

DISCOVERED AT LAST.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

AND

CHEROKEE INJECTION!

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic cures all diseases of the urinary organs.

It is prepared in a highly conventrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gleet, Gonorrhea, Fluor Albus. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent, removing all scalding, heat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

Price, Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

Price, Cherokee Injection, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

THE GREAT

INDIAN MEDICINE!

COMPOUNDED FROM

ROOTS, BARKS,  AND LEAVES.

CHEROKEE CURE!

This medicine is a simple vegetable extract, and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated, it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn case.

To those who have trifled with their constitution, until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say, DESPAIR NOT! the CHEROKEE CURE will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed!

Price, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5, and forwarded by Express to all parts of the world.

THAT IS SO, AND NO MISTAKE!

If You Wish to Save Money

you must go where they sell

GOODS THE CHEAPEST,

and that place is

M. C. SMITH & CO.'S,

where you can save fifty cents to one dollar on a Hat.

You can save from one dollar to one dollar and a half on a pair of Pants.

You can save from two dollars to six dollars on a Coat.

You can save from five to ten dollars on a Suit of Clothes.

In addition to these great savings you will procure goods of

A Better Quality,
A Better Style,
and a Better Fit

THAN AT ANY OTHER STORE

this side of Boston.

FARMERS,

Don't pay Twelve Shillings for a Hat at some of the small concerns round town, when you can purchase the same at our store for one dollar.

Don't pay $4 for a Linen Coat, when you can get the same quality at M. C. Smith & Co.'s for $3.

Don't pay from $20 to $25 for a Black Dress Coat, when you can purchase precisely the same quality at M. C. Smith & Co.'s for from $12 to $18.

Don't pay from $25 to $30 for a Suit of Clothes, when you can purchase the same, only a little better, at M. C. Smith & Co., at from $20 to $25.

Don't go and pay $10 for a Trunk, when you can buy the same at our store for $6.

Now, Farmers of Rock County,

THIS IS NO BLOWING,

but the real truth, and after you have looked into every concern in town,
